Mr. HONDA and Mr. BECERRA changed their vote from "yea" to "nay."

Ms. CARSON of Indiana changed her vote from "present" to "yea."

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The title of the bill was amended so as to read: "To deter and punish terrorist acts in the United States and around the world, to enhance law enforcement investigatory tools, and for other purposes."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

AUTHORIZING THE CLERK TO MAKE CORRECTIONS IN ENGROSSMENT OF H.R. 2975, PATRIOT ACT OF 2001

Mr. BARR of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that in the engrossment of the bill, H.R. 2975, the Clerk be authorized to make technical corrections and conforming changes to the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. NETHERCUTT). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

There was no objection.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I take this time for the purpose of inquiring the schedule for the remainder of the week and next week.

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the House has completed its legislative business for the week. The House will next meet for legislative business next Tuesday, October 16, at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour, and at 2 p.m. for legislative business.

The House will consider a number of measures under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices later today. Of special importance to Members, on Tuesday, no recorded votes are expected until 6 p.m.

On Wednesday and the balance of the week, the House will consider the following measures, subject to rules:

First, on Wednesday, the conference report to accompany H.R. 2217, the Interior appropriations bill for fiscal year 2002. Also on Wednesday, H.R. 3004, the Financial Anti-Terrorism Act of 2001, which is money laundering legislation reported out of committee yesterday.

□ 1630

Finally, on Thursday the House is expected to take up H.R. 3090, the Economic Security and Recovery Act of 2001, which is expected to be reported out of the Committee on Ways and Means yet this afternoon or this evening.

Mr. Speaker, appropriators are also working hard on additional bills now in conference. It is our hope that additional appropriations conference reports will be available for consideration in the House at some point next week.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I would inquire of the gentleman from Ohio if the aviation security bill is coming to the floor next week.

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will continue to yield, we are hopeful it will come to the floor next week. We are still working on this legislation. The gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG) and the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. OBERSTAR) and others are working on it. We want to take this bill up with some urgency, but we cannot give the gentleman a firm time at this point.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, let me just say this. We have been very patient here. I have been raising this issue each week at the end of the week with a colloquy with the distinguished majority leader about the aviation security bill, and about the compensation bill for those who were laid off. Every week we have been told, well, we are working on that. We are working on it.

While we are working on it, the American people want some security in their flights. They want to know that their baggage is going to be checked. They want to know that there is a federally-secured inspection system in place. They want to know all of these things.

I must say, with all due respect, we are running out of patience, and I think the American people are running out of patience. That bill ought to have been brought to the floor today. It passed the Senate 100 to 0. There is no reason why we keep delaying and delaying.

So I want to encourage my friend, the gentleman from Ohio, and my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, have that bill on the floor as soon as we get back here next week. The American people are ready for it; we are ready for it on our side. I know Members on the gentleman's side are ready for it. There is no reason to continue to delay this important legislation.

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BONIOR. I yield to the gentleman from Minnesota.

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I would just say to the distinguished acting majority leader that in the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure we have worked very diligently on a bipartisan basis sharing ideas, coming to agreement on virtually all items in an aviation security bill but one.

I would hope that we would have that legislation, either the majority version or our version. Certainly, I understand bringing up the majority version of this bill on the House floor next week, but with an opportunity for us to offer our package as a substitute, or an amendment in the nature of a substitute.

I know, without going into the detail of it here, there is division over one issue. We ought to have an opportunity to elucidate that issue of who ought to conduct the screening of persons and carry-on baggage and checked baggage at airports. We ought to have a rational discussion on this subject. I hope that the majority will allow that to occur on the House floor next week.

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will continue to yield, I know we have an important briefing, and Members are waiting to hear the briefing and to catch airplanes and get home with their families, which is also very important.

We totally agree that it is very urgent to bring this measure to the floor. As we know, the Senate completed action only late last night. There are some differences between the President's proposal and the Senate bill. There are some complex issues still to be resolved. But we are very hopeful we can get that to the floor next week and get these issues resolved, and provide the American people an additional sense of security, in addition to the National Guard and other important measures that have been taken in the interim.

I would tell the gentleman that the points are well taken, and we will move with urgency.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I would just say to my friend, the gentleman from Ohio, and he is my friend, that the Senate worked last night on the bill we just passed here a few moments ago. The gentleman on his side saw fit to bring it to the floor and get it done today.

There is no reason why we cannot move on this important piece of legislation. It passed the Senate 100 to 0. The American people want security in aviation, in flying in this country. We need it, and we need it yesterday. So I want to encourage all my colleagues on the other side to pressure their leadership to get it to the floor.

We know what the issue is. The issue is whether we are going to have a professional Federal work force inspecting. Everyone understands that. Why do we not have a debate on that? This is what this is about.

It should not be about one or two people on that side of the aisle who are holding this up because they do not want it. It should be a debate where everybody decides on this floor. If we win, fine. If they win, fine. Let us get on with the business of taking care of the flying public.
